

Lesen mit Antolin

Antolin – Again available for EGLS Students and German friends

Reading is a fun and important part in learning a language.

EGLS offers Antolin, an online quiz program for all reading levels (1-10 grades).

Students choose their favorite books, read at their own pace and test their reading comprehension online at home with Antolin. Antolin is also available for most mobile devices.

The Antolin reading program includes multiple choice quizzes for more than 30.000 books (classics and new releases). Many of the EGLS library books and the German language books at KCLS are included. For reading suggestions please also contact our EGLS library volunteers.

Every student who participates gets an account and password. For more information visit www.antolin.de. This page will be in German, however, if you need help, please don't hesitate to ask our EGLS Team.

Cost: $10 per student for the school year to cover the program cost and purchasing new library books.

Hurry; there are only a limited number of spaces available.
